UNLEASHING PERSONAL POTENTIAL BY HELPING
YOU UNDERSTAND YOURSELF.

Your Personality Profile

Profile Analysis :-

You are often described as the 'Autocrat', and for good reason. You display a high level of control and assertiveness, and remarkably domineering, and even overbearing at times. You have a very strong need to achieve, and because of this you are often ambitious and competitive, striving aggressively to achieve your goals. You are dynamic and adaptable, and show decisiveness and a capacity for direct leadership. ■

Connecting to People :-

You tend to stress on achievement and success significantly, which affects your relations with other people. In extreme cases, you seem to treat other people simply as a means to an end, or a way of achieving your personal goals. Since you are not emotional, you tend not to place great importance on feelings, either your own or others'. The competitive nature in you leads to see challenges and opposition everywhere, and others sometimes find it difficult to break through this naturally suspicious, skeptical shell of yours. ■

General Faculty :-

You have qualities of command and leadership. It should be noted, however, that these abilities are based on your direct, demanding nature, and are more suited to structured, formal situations than those where close ties are required. You are a competent and confident decision-maker, able to reach a conclusion quickly from minimal information and act accordingly. You are well suited to situations that others would find unbearably stressful, as your desire for challenge and your enjoyment of success against the odds makes you unusually proficient in dealing with such situations. ■

Motivating Factors :-

You like to feel that you are in control, and seek opportunities to reinforce and emphasize your personal power. You measure your progress in life by your achievements and successes, and feel the need to maintain a sense of personal momentum. Being impatient and forthright, you intensely dislike situations that you are unable to directly resolve for yourselves - dependence on other people is anathema to you. You find these kinds of situation extremely frustrating, and can be driven to wild, impulsive actions in an attempt to relieve the pressure. ■

Descriptive Traits :-

The sub-traits of this type are Efficiency, Self-motivation and Independence. ■
